Lesotho Council of NGOs to convene its 17th NGO Week (2/11/16).

Lesotho Council of NGOs will convene its 27th Annual General Meeting and 17th NGO Week from November 28th to 2nd December at Manthabiseng Convention Centre in Maseru.

NGO week is a platform where member NGO's gather to share and reflect on the progress and challenges facing development in the context of NGO operations. The theme for this year is "Demanding rule of law and civic participation in the next semi-centennial of Lesotho".

The first three days will feature workshops which will be run under different topics and forums at which various topics will be discussed.

The last two days of the NGO week will be devoted to the LCN Annual General Meeting, where reports from the President and Treasurer will be presented and discussed by members, as well as the adoption of recommendations made during the NGO week.
