Community Mobilisation Techniques Training workshops – Press Release (07/05/15).

Lesotho Council of NGOs has organised a series of workshops on community mobilisation techniques in three districts namely; Mafeteng, Leribe and Butha Buthe. The trainings will be hosted on the 10 – 12 May at Mafeteng Hotel, then in Leribe at Pitseng Aloes Guest House from 14 – 17 May and the last one in Butha- Buthe from May 17 – 19 at Crocodile Inn.

The objective of the trainings is to equip the trainees with skills and knowledge on community mobilisation techniques as to enhance accountability of the local authorities to the electorate and to link the concepts of democracy, decentralisation and community mobilisation. This activity is part of Deepening Decentralisation and Non-State Actors Project which intends to provide a conducive platform for NGOs and Non-State Actors to influence to constructive engage with local authorities on issues of development. The Project is supported by the European Union.

Participants in these workshops will be representative of civil society organisations working in the 20 community councils where the Deepening Decentralisation and Non-State Actors Project is implemented.
