PRESS RELEASE

LCN to hold Multi-stakeholders Forum

Maseru, 3rd September 2014 – Civil Societies Organizations under the auspices of the Lesotho Council of NGOs will hold a two-day Multi-Stakeholders Forum at Maseru Sun on the 8th and 9th September 2014 at 8.30am.

The purpose of the meeting is to provide a platform for Basotho to talk about and seek for long lasting solution to the impending political situation in the country. The meeting is necessitated by the political developments, which the country experienced in the past few months.

The meeting will:

- Recap on the New Zealand report
- Give feedback from Victoria Falls trip
- Discuss on the current political landscape
- Propose immediate, medium and long term solutions and actions to address the current political challenges in the kingdom
- Discuss and put in place a Multi Stake Holder Structure that will be engaged in resolving the political challenges in the country

The forum will also be a platform for Basotho to give direction that should be taken to resolve the current political impasse and forge the country's future.

The meeting will draw about 100 participants from business sector, academia, political parties, civil society, development partners and religious leaders.
