Lesotho Council of NGOs will convene a validation workshop on Evidence for Participatory Accounting Mechanisms of Food Security and HIV and AIDS (29/06/16)

Lesotho Council of NGOs (LCN) will convene a workshop to validate a study it conducted on Evidence for Participatory Accounting Mechanisms of Food Security and HIV and AIDS with the purpose to generate evidence to be used by communities in engaging with community councils on issues relating to accountability and responsiveness of food security and HIV and AIDS programmes implemented by the Government of Lesotho.

The validation workshop is held at Lehakoe Recreation Centre on 29th June 2016.

LCN is currently implementing a project called Building the Capacity of Non – State Actors (NSA) for Constructive Engagement in Local Government Project. The project is funded by the European Union and spans from 2013 to 2015. The overall objective of the project is to enhance the participation of NASs in the contributing to poverty reduction at community level. The focal districts are Leribe, Maseru, Butha – Buthe, Mohale’s Hoek, Mafeteng and Mokhotlong.

LCN engaged the services of Native Seed Consulting to undertake this study.
